From: library@monmouthhistory.org,
To: briansmithdc@aol.com,
Subject: Re: MCHSI 1351-64
Date: Thu, May 12, 2022 12:06 pm
Attachments: 1351-64.pdf (272K)

Hi Brian,
The picture didn't come through, but I think you are referring to the Monmouth County Historic Sites Inventory located here. Type 1351-64 in the search box and you will get a location on the map along with a link to the report. I am attaching a copy of the report also. The address listed is 637 Province Line Road, Upper Freehold Twp. Sadly, the house seems to have been demolished in 2008.

I'm glad you're coming to visit! Marlpit Hall is open Friday-Sunday, 1-4pm. The Taylor-Butler house right next door will also be open. The other houses, including Allen House, will not be open yet.

Let me know if you have any other questions,

Kim Bedetti
Librarian and Archivist

Monmouth County Historical Association
Library & Archives
70 Court Street
Freehold, NJ 07728
732-462-1466
www.monmouthhistory.org

On Tue, May 10, 2022 at 6:46 PM Brian Smith, DC <briansmithdc@aol.com> wrote:

> In one of your publications there is a picture (attached) of the home of Anthony Woodward, designated MCHSI 1351-64. Described as a fieldstone structure in Upper Freehold Tp, I was wondering if you can share a more specific location of this house? I assume it is in North Crosswicks and I would very much like to see it when I am in the area next week. Anthony is a direct ancestor of mine and it would mean a lot.
>
> I hope to introduce my great-nieces to MCHS too as I am planning to visit both the Allen House and Marlpit Hall - both the Grovers and the Allens are direct ancestors too. I also recall there being an Edward Taylor house in Middleton and, you guessed it, another direct ancestor.
>
> If there is any change to your published hours for Marlpit Hall over the weekend of 5/21-5/22, could you please let me know?
>
> Thank you very much.
>
> Sincerely,
>
> Dr. Brian A. Smith (ret)
> 407.457.2800